How do I find out what is available?

1 Our Newsletter
 Issued four times a year, this handy guide contains information about our future meetings, reviews of the past quarter, and a wealth of other useful facts to help you make optimum use of your U3A

2 Our e-Bulletin
 The e-Bulletin is emailed to you every quarter mid-way between the Newsletters, and contains news from members, groups, the committee, the Thames Valley U3A Network, and the Third Age Trust

3 Our Website
www.sbu3a.org.uk
 has a timetable and calendar for forthcoming meetings, plus links to all the contacts you need.

SOUTH BUCKS

How do I join a Group?

Just phone or email the convenor using the contact details in the Newsletter, or click on the "send a Message" button on the group's page on our website

 Please write an "In case of Emergency" contact telephone number on the back of your membership card and have it with you at all meetings and outings

Your U3A is a self-help organisation. All members are encouraged to participate fully by making their skills, knowledge, experience, and enthusiasm available in some capacity to other members.
