PRIVACY STATEMENT

South Bucks u3a processes member information so that we can keep you informed about events, groups and activities as part of your membership. South Bucks u3a's lawful basis for collecting this information is legitimate interest. In processing your information South Bucks u3a will store it securely, use it to communicate with you as a u3a member, share your contact information with group leaders/convenors for those groups that you are a member of. The Third Age Trust (the national organisation to which all u3as are affiliated) may use it to send you general information.

MEMBERS INTERESTS

Completing these details will help us meet the needs and interests of our members, but supplying this information is voluntary. The information is for committee and group convenor use only.

Which groups are you interested in joining?

Skills/experience – the u3a is a mutual aid/self help organisation, where members give their time and share their interests and experience to help with our activities. We all have something to pass on to others, and we all have new things to learn and try!

What experience do you have that might be of mutual use/interest to other members (e.g. talking on a subject, starting/running an interest group, administration etc.)?

What interests have you that are not already covered by our groups? We might be able to start a new one...
